This Week in Wabash draft

Hello, Wabash,

In last week's newsletter, I told you how to submit information (and high-quality photos) about an upcoming event. As promised, this week I want to tell you how to contribute to our Opinion page.

The Opinion page runs in nearly every edition. We're always looking for both letters to the editor and guest local columnists. We publish a diversity of viewpoints on this page, and as long as you don't go on for too long – generally 300 words or fewer for letters to the editor, and 500 words or fewer for columns, please – avoid libelous statements and remain truthful, there's a good chance you'll see your work in print, too.

Please sign your letter. Your name will be used with the letter that is published in the Plain Dealer. Your letter will be returned if you desire to stay anonymous. We ask that you include your address and telephone number so we can verify your identity. We will only publish your name and city and state if we do decide to publish your contribution.

Also, if you're submitting a column, please include a high-quality photo of yourself.

A letter should be two pages long or fewer, preferably of double-spaced typing. Please make sure to use complete sentences, Associated Press style and Microsoft Word or PDF file formats. In addition to sending all this by email to news@wabashplaindealer.com you may also send it by mail to 99 W. Canal St., Wabash, IN 46992. Although, if you can send it by email to please do.

I'm proud that our Opinion page is a diverse community forum. But, this can only remain possible if you do your part and contribute.

Have a great rest of your day.
